

Zweigwhite names MHTN Architects a “Best Firm to Work For”

December 8, 2011

Local Salt Lake City architecture firm, MHTN Architects, Inc. was named one of the country’s “Best Firms to Work For” by ZweigWhite. The architectural design firm ranked seventh overall in the nation.

“Everyone helps to create a culture of excellence at MHTN,” said Peggy McDonough, President of MHTN Architects. “We are proud this is reflected in how we run our firm and the buildings we design.”

The annual “Best Firms to Work For” ranking recognizes firms for their dedication to a collaborative work environment, individual empowerment, firm values and employee satisfaction. The winning firms were recognized at a special award ceremony during the 2011 Best Firms to Work For Summit presented by ZweigWhite, September 29-30, in San Diego, California.

The ZweigWhite Best Firms to Work For ranking is based on comprehensive evaluations of firm culture, workplace practices, employee benefits, employee retention rates, professional development, and more -- both from the management and staff’s perspectives. All firms that apply are evaluated against each other, not a set standard.

###

About MHTN Architects, Inc.

Established in 1923 as a local Salt Lake City practice, MHTN Architects, Inc. has developed into a leading full service architectural firm that serves educational, healthcare, commercial, civic and cultural clients locally, nationally and around the world.

About ZweigWhite

Twice named to the Inc. 500 list of best firms, ZweigWhite is the nation’s leader in enhancing business performance for architecture, engineering, and environmental consulting firms